Mediaeval Latin lyrics : Waddell, Helen, 1889

I just love parallel texts. Sadly there is no vocabulary nor grammatical notes as it's a reading book than a learning book, but it's a welcome collection to have. Some poems have names on which we probably can rely attached to them, such as the heart-breaking and beautiful verses between Ausonius and Paulinus.

My copy, admittedly often read, now has loose pages and brittle paper. This book contains poems from Petronius Arbiter to the 13th century in both latin and English translation. I've just ordered the Wandering Scholars by her and I can hardly wait for it to arrive.

Mediaeval Latin Lyrics

This was just so much fun to read.

Medieval Latin Lyrics by Brian Stock

The poems are, to be forthright, about Venus more than about Ceres, and Bacchus is by no means last.
