Reasons and Decision: In the Matter of David Charles Phillips and John Russell Wilson

Thor has lent funds to its wholly owned subsidiaries to enable those companies to carry out their operations. Under section 162, employees over age 40 receive 1½ weeks' pay per year they had worked, employees aged 22 to 40 receive 1 week's pay per year worked, and employees age 21 or less receive half a week's pay, though the upper limit was £464 per week in 2014. This increase appears to be both a result of the extreme 138 Contracting Commuter Rail Services, Volume 1: Guidebook simplicity of the policy as well as the rider perception that there is zero incremental cost to use commuter rail if already a TriMet customer.
