Oberster Gerichts- und Cassationshof, Austria. The Constitution adopted a year later gave the equality on the federal level. The close identification of religion with ethnicity sometimes causes religious institutions to become targets of violence.

Religion Dictionary

Nowhere outside of dear old Ireland, in the days of want and famine, have I heard sounds so mournful. These efforts added much to the labor of the preachers, for such was the condition of the slaves that they were not permitted, on working days, to attend the public administration of the word in company with their masters; and hence the preachers devoted the evenings to their instruction after the customary labors of the day were closed. Yarsani men, recognizable by their particular mustaches, often faced employment discrimination.

The songs of the slaves represented their sorrows, rather than their joys. Government's ability to press for redress is limited to acts in multilateral fora or to coordinated efforts with other governments that do have diplomatic relations with the country in question. The Embassy emphasized that while assurances of police protection in the future for Jehovah's Witnesses were welcome, since the identity of those involved in the March 8 attack was apparently known, we expected active prosecution of those who had violated the law.
