Ministry Matters™

Sadly, when the church falls short in this vital ministry, those who grieve are slow to forget. When the church offers the opportunity for those who grieve to participate in a support group, it responds to the spiritual void in the secular world that denies the power and importance of grief.

Ministry Matters™

I knew that if I was ever to be comforted and survive my life-altering encounter with grief, I must understand the why of this profound loss to my life.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY PROGRAM A COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE FOR CHURCHES

Often we have a preconceived notion that a grief group is usually for older ladies who gather to share dire stories and bemoan their losses.

The Bereavement Ministry Program A Comprehensive Guide For Churches PDF Book

Influenced by the circumstances and tragedies of contemporary life, the idea of what a grief group looks like and the needs of those who attend have changed over time.

The Bereavement Ministry Program : A Comprehensive Guide for Churches

As Leighton lay dying, I kept hoping—irrationally and entirely in vain—that the nightmare of his illness might still end in earthly victory. When those who grieve experience the ongoing ministry of comfort in the church, they are inspired to lead, comfort, and encourage others who grieve, thus giving back to the pastoral care outreach of the church.

The Bereavement Ministry Program A Comprehensive Guide For Churches PDF Book

It is a mandate of our faith to comfort those who grieve in every experience of loss. It typically is an extra burden of grief for men to sustain meaningful contact with others. When he died, I felt there was no one and nothing that could ever comfort my broken heart.
