REPEAL OF THE SEPTENNIAL ACT. (Hansard, 15 May 1834)

Therefore, to have followed the drafting of last year's Act would be tantamount to saying that for seven years there shall be substituted seven years. In that connection, let us not forget the tremendous contribution which the world trade union movement can make.

First Parliament of George I: First session (part 3 of 3)

There is one change of drafting in this Bill. The dissentients believed that they were separate in England: whatever powers Parliament had, it had not the power, or the right, to tamper with the constitution.

WILLIAMS (afterwards WILLIAMS WYNN), Watkin (?1693

Sandford: I proposed that the legal duration should be four years.

DANVERS, Joseph (1686

Burke saw none in 1769: Parliament was sovereign, he said, no matter how the House of Commons was elected, and no doubt many Parliamentary reformers would have agreed. We ought to imitate the Spirit which our Predecessors ever shew'd in resisting all Attempts of this Kind, all Appearances of Innovation by the Lords. It must be the concern of His Majesty's Government to breathe life into these blue prints and to make a living organism of peace and plenty.
