By December 1986, the then-president Francois Mitterrand publicly opened the museum.

Musee D Orsay

Serving simple, if a bit expensive, meals in an ornate setting, the restaurant features elaborate ceiling frescoes and carvings.

Musée d'Orsay

Notable works here include pieces by Corot, Courbet, Manet and Millet. The striking reds of wild poppies against a muted green background serve to make the piece all the more vivid, heightened only by the black and white figures slipping through the field.

Musee D Orsay

The museum follows security measures per French authorities, and this can lead to delays.
