What Does the Bible Say About Only Worshipping God?

Most regular religious attenders say their congregation is now streaming or recording its services

Among U.S. adults who typically attend religious services at least monthly or attended in person in the last month, % who say the house of worship they attend most often is currently streaming or recording its services so that people can watch them online or on TV

Vast majorities of churchgoing Christians, those who attend worship services at least once a month, report that their congregation has been closed, including nine-in-ten or more among evangelical Protestants 92%, Catholics 94% and mainline Protestants 96%. Instead of worship being the uninterrupted experience of man, sin necessitated the scheduling of worship to a time and a place.

Planning Worship With Teens

Still, two-thirds of Catholics say their parish now provides this kind of electronic outreach. In her career she has been a staff member, volunteer, parent, and participant in formation models across the country, and internationally. He is obsessed with the solemn head of Christ pictures in our house and loves making the.

Planning Worship With Teens

Several years of pondering have brought me to the conclusion that these people do like to worship God, as I like to worship God, but not like I like to worship God.

Some Americans say their religious faith has strengthened as a result of the outbreak, even as the vast majority of U.

Defining Worship: Worship as Everyday Life

And that is a good descriptive term for God. Sunday school, when done well — or even done adequately — is a place of nurture.
