Cousin Bette (1998 film)

The main goal of the characters is to achieve a notable status and be a respectful person. The culmination of the Comedie humaine, and a brilliant portrayal of the grasping, bourgeois society of 1840s Paris, Cousin Bette is one of Balzac's greatest triumphs as a novelist.

Cousin Bette by Honoré de Balzac: 9780375759079

In the 1860s the construction of the Boulevard Saint-Germain eliminated the aristocratic nature of the Faubourg. Important works were still to come following the European revolutions of 1848, but after the publication of the magnificent paired novels Cousin Bette and Cousin Pons in 1847, Balzac's health and creative talents quickly deteriorated. If you want to read what Cousin Betty is about, there are plenty of summaries.

Cousin Bette Themes

In Cousin Bette, there is Vauvinet, but the best moneylender in his work is the eponymous hero of Gobseck. The culmination of the Comedie humaine, Balzac's epic chronicle of his times, it is one of his greatest triumphs as a novelist.
