Christian theology

If we say that something can be divine while lacking those properties, then we lose all grip on what it means to be divine. McCall, Jacob Arminius: Theologian of Grace Oxford University, 2012 , 157—158.

What are the essentials of the Christian faith?

Rather, it means that even the good which a person may intend is faulty in its premise, false in its motive, and weak in its implementation; and there is no mere refinement of natural capacities that can correct this condition. This framework for interpretation has made possible the application of biblical insights to missionary practice in ways that correct, challenge, and transform. But even as such I would gladly have resigned the task to abler hands if any such had appeared.
