Alma Flor Ada and You, Volume II

They want to make sure that their children learn to speak English very well. But it's a story that just came to me one night after working with farm working parents, talking to them about the importance of education, what they could do for them — and all of that late at night, because it was summer, and they work on the fields until ten o'clock.

Biographical Information

Amusing details, meanwhile, hook older readers Goldilocks, for instance, is imagined as Mr.

Alma Flor Ada

CABE Lifetime Achievement Award Acceptance Speech I stand in front of you with immense gratitude to the CABE president, the members of the Board and the organizers of this Gala, and to the incansable y entusiasta María Quezada for the honor that they has bestowed on me tonight, and for the great pleasure of addressing you.
