Derviş Ali Kavazoğlu

Long live the memory of our two true beloved Cypriots, Dervish Ali Kavazoglou and Costas Mishiaouli, and all the other compatriots who sacrificed their lives for a free united Cyprus. Comrades and compatriots, I want to close my speech with the words of Dervish Ali Kavazoglu spoken in 1964 at a gathering of Turkish Cypriots and Greek Cypriots, powerful words that touch the heart but also timely words that show the path of fight and struggle which we will not stop until our country is liberated. Comrades Dear compatriots For us in AKEL rapprochement has never been an opportunistic policy or a policy that changes according to partisan considerations, or that which is undertaken at the instigation of others.

Op. Dr. Ali Kavuzlu

Unfortunately, some politicians and political parties, especially in light of electoral competitions, mince their words and muddy their intentions. You can send us a message through , or.

They managed the opposite though. Proleterlerin yegâne silahı, birleşip anlaşılarak, kapitalistlere karşı cephe almaktır.

Op. Dr. Ali Kavuzlu

The consequences of a bad solution will be the same as the consequences of a non-solution and partition. That is what we seek in the negotiations: the application of these principles in any form of the solution.
