Boston City Charter

The motion to lay on the table requires a majority vote. The Council was also given power of approving the budget, as presented by the Mayor. No demonstration of approval or disapproval from members of the public will be permitted including, but not limited to signs, placards, banners, cheering, clapping, booing, etc.

Parks rules and regulations

Said notification shall include the names of the individuals or groups and the reason they are being honored. No member of the press shall be allowed on the council floor without the consent of the presiding officer.

City Council rules

The Mayor did, however, have the sole power to nominate candidates for city office.

Collection: City Council Committee hearing transcripts

The council, or any committee thereof, shall have the honor of recognizing persons, groups, and events of significant importance to the City of Boston. All heads of departments and municipal boards, excluding the school committee and those appointed by law by the governor, would be appointed by the mayor without confirmation by the City Council. The City Council is to maintain legislative functions, control of the City budget, create agencies, making land use decisions, and serve as check to the Mayor's executive.
