Mary's Nottingham; and now may be almost considered as making a part of that place, by its vicinity. All resistance on their part, however, to the treaty was then hopeless ; the poor had been betrayed by the rich ; the infidels were already in possession of the tower of David, and their spears were gleaming in the streets of the Holy City. Before we proceed to a description of the Town, it may be necessary to notice some of the most principal Walks frequented by the inhabitants.

January 13th, Legislature voted a congratulatory address to General Greene. Be it known that by the common advice and assent of our council at Oxford it was provided, for the defence of our realm and the recovery of our right, and granted that every layman in all England, of whomsoever he may hold, who has rents and chattels in England, should give us in aid from every mark of his annual revenue, twelve pence, and from every mark's worth of every sort of movable chattels which he had on the octave of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin, that is at the time of the council, twelve pence, and thus in proportion more or less. Men were compelled to avoid the company of the excommunicated, unless they were willing to participate in his punishment.
