It consists in its rich use of various genres, that is, it contains diverse literary voices and thus reflects a multiplicity of language systems, and second, it contains a high degree of parody in its rejection of the seriousness of learned culture, above all the Goethean Bildungsroman. The German concept of Freikörperkultur FKK, free body culture originated in the various youth movements around the turn of the century and implied the idea that the naked body could heal more easily and become a healthy body, because through nudity one was in touch with nature.

Little Jakob, who is a beautiful child, makes a terrible mistake by scolding an old woman in the marketplace and by commenting on her ugly physical appearance. The Menippea discovered new forms of the scandalous and the eccentric, which are deliberately disruptive of the high tone of the epic and tragic genres.
