Andrzej Panufnik

It is cast in one continuous movement, divided into three sections arranged symmetrically like a vast triptych. Previously regarded as one of the outstanding representatives of his generation, after his departure Panufnik was proclaimed a traitor by the Polish authorities, and in his new homeland had to build his position from scratch.

Andrzej Panufnik

In his native Poland, his name was deleted from all records and publications and he became a 'non-person'. Thus in 1954 Panufnik no longer felt able to reconcile his patriotic desire to remain a Polish composer in Poland with his contempt for the musical and political demands of the government.

Andrzej Panufnik: su historia

He wrote a three movement work, ending with a setting of words by his friend, the poet.

Andrzej Panufnik at 100

He took British nationality in 1961. En aquellos años cualquier reunión pública, conciertos incluidos, estaba prohibida en los países ocupados. Adrian Thomas Listen to four recommended recordings below.

Andrzej Panufnik: su historia

Although a few subsequent Polish performances nevertheless did occur as shown by the Panufnik scholar , with his defection Panufnik became a , and remained so until 1977. A climax shatters into silence and returns to the initial movement's sparse melodic lines in the Postscriptum, finally reaching a serene sense of stillness.
