Notes on the Spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola (Book, 1983) [localize-img.justmote.me]

Greater room for authentic repetition must be allowed for the individual to return to points of personal spiritual sensitivity; increased private direction must be provided so as to tailor the movement and content of prayer to the spiritual capacities and needs of each; greater respect must be had for the uniqueness of the inner inspirations and vocation of the individual, his personal spiritual maturity, his own relationship to the Lord.

Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius

His depth of understanding the Spiritual Exercises is evident in each paragraph.

Like the Lightning: The Dynamics of the Ignatian Exercises

The retreat requires a daily commitment of 60-90 minutes in prayer and reflection and a weekly meeting with a spiritual director for approximately eight or nine months. The director will be alert to sense if such a state is in danger of taking hold, of becoming a settled and barren self-preoccupation.
