Secondly, the Supreme Court has, unsurprisingly but very quickly, which will be heard from 5 December 2016, most likely over the following four days. Another problem raised by UNDP is a lack of clarity both on how and when the executive can be called to report to Parliament and what the nature and content of that reporting should be. States that had laws against miscegenation refused to recognize marriages between blacks and whites legally contracted elsewhere, and even criminalized those marriages.
