As a photographer I am currently involved in a project to draw together a series of portraits of some of the people who went to CCCS. In 1935 Marion published Writing and Writing Patterns, a set of hinged cards and booklets developed from her Dudley Writing Cards, 1928 for teaching handwriting based on patterns and natural movements and enabling each child to make a gradual transition to a personal style. The library closed in May 2018 when the remaining schools based at Perry Barr moved to the City South Campus.
