Should You Really Take 10,000 Steps A Day?

I upgraded my step goal to 12,500 each day around October and I also use the Runkeeper app to track my miles so I set up 150 miles per month as my goal. I have been raised to always be physically active so what recommendations are there for people like me who will never be able to do 10K a day? The Steve Jobs biography would fit this category. Jacki: What would I do with 10k? Maybe you've dealt with this.

Easy ways to get your 10,000 steps

This will allow you to work toward achieving a long term goal while also achieving short term goals 10,000 steps per day along the way. I use Isagenix, eating about 1200 calories a day. I believe life style changes can make the world of difference.

Best Ways to Invest $10,000 in 2021: 10 Ideas to Invest Like a Pro

I eat too much junk — need to cut that out, too. Anybody else know how to do this or had a similar problem? I was reduced to walking less than 1500 steps a day because of tendinitis, muscle tension, and pain that was occurring along with my muscles shutting down.
