Portrait of Algernon Percy, 4th Duke of Northumberland.

Ezra Pound

Hulme the isolation of the image. Eliot denied he was Prufrock, so Pound denied he was Mauberley, but the poem, made up of 18 short poems, is nevertheless read as autobiographical.

Ezra Pound

It is a language of origins, of beginnings, capturing a sense of the archaic or primitive quality in Homer's text. There is surprisingly little to go on, then, apart from Pound's isolated comments on Loy which are, with the exception of the 1918 Little Review piece on the Others anthology, usually brief, but insistent that Loy be considered part of the American vanguard. Italy 1924—45 Birth of the children The Pounds were unhappy in Paris.
