T. F. Powys

If Powys had any religious beliefs they were, in the terms of conventional Christianity, highly heterodox, even heretical. Very good cloth copy in a near-fine, very slightly edge-nicked and dust-dulled dust-wrapper, now mylar-sleeved. But Hester soon found, even though she followed her natural studies bravely, and noticed the behaviour of men, beasts and birds, that nothing so odd or so very queer occurred.
