A Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Strategy for the Canadian International Extractive Sector

Behind the mask—The real face of corporate social responsibility. The relevant departments of the State Council shall strengthen coordination, cooperation, and information sharing, and determine and implement related countermeasures in accordance with their respective duties and division of labor. Building it in foreign markets virtually exclusively in support of non Canadian clients does not appear justified in RBF's Canadian based strategy.

Reviewing the Export Development Act

Some of the church groups in Winnipeg do a wonderful job. However, that is exactly what the government is doing. Pursuant to the business statement I just made, I believe you would find unanimous consent pursuant to earlier discussions to move a motion.

Reviewing the Export Development Act

Both bilaterally and in multilateral forums such as the UN and the Conference on Disarmament, Canada continues to urge Russia to ratify START II. Why do we keep doing that in this day and age? Its budget has been cut back in recent years in terms of stable core funding, of which we have been very critical.
