I Dreamed of Africa (2000)

The film doesn't even show them arriving there. Gallmann's story is well-known - her enduring love story with Paolo, and her love for Africa resulted in a movie by the same name.

A colleague lent me this book and having given it as a birthday present to a student who just spent part of his summer holidays in Africa, I thought it was time I actually read it. In 1972, after they were married and she'd fully recovered, the family moved to Kenya and made their home at Ol Ari Nyiro ranch in the west-central part of the country.

I Dreamed of Africa (2000)

I admire her attitude towards the land on which she lives.

A colleague lent me this book and having given it as a birthday present to a student who just spent part of his summer holidays in Africa, I thought it was time I actually read it. She had a son crazy about snakes and they lived miles away from a doctor and any medical help. Kuki has the most amazing way with imagery, one of my favorite styles of writing.

I Dreamed of Africa (2000)

After all, it takes a special kind of moxie to survive being the first African-American FLOTUS—and not only survive, but thrive.
