A Month of Sundays by Liz Byrski

I loved the idea of this book, four book club friends meeting and discussing books. One of them was house sitting immediately post retirement and convinced the other three to join her in the Blue Mountains.

Preaching Resources, Preaching Messages on month

I was also interested by some of the books that were chosen for the book club, and am now considering reading some of them myself! Then come Sunday, it was discussion time. A heartfelt journey await readers of all ages should they choose to read A Month of Sundays.

Preaching Resources, Preaching Messages on month

During the week, each woman will read the book choice and then discuss it on the Sunday. In 1951, at , he founded a Department of Theater Arts. As an avid reader and book club member, I was really looking forward to this book.

A month of Sundays legal definition of a month of Sundays

He continued to work for Time until 1961. This is the ideal winter warmer, as it ties together a memorable story revolving around books, female friendships and the final parting message, that it is never too late to embrace change. To move things along in this direction, each member of the book club has been asked to share a favourite book that best expresses who they are.

Scenes from a Marriage: A Month Of Sundays

It's a tantalising opportunity to spend a month walking in the fresh air, napping by the fire and, of course, reading and talking about books.

Never In A Month Of Sundays Sermon by David Hughes, Mark 2:23

I might actually pass it onto my husband grandmother to see her thoughts. This is the 'light read' for my own online book group later in the year and I'm sure it will fit the bill - light and easy but with enough depth to sustain interest and promote discussion.

Scenes from a Marriage: A Month Of Sundays

Another great Liz Byrski book.

month of Sundays

They spend a month or so in a house in the blue mountains. Yes they are all older ladies, but I am not ageist especially in my reading.
