It shows the Prince talking to a returning serviceman in Ashburton This affectionate approach was reciprocated with even more warmth and fervour. The king went on a cruise with Mrs Simpson in August.

A Present to His Royal Highness

I had visited practically all the important countries of the world, except Soviet Russia, and many of the smaller ones. Dawson had also been to see Prime Minister Baldwin and had found him equally concerned about the situation. That the Viceroy of India, Lord Linlithgow, discussed the situation with both Baldwin and Lang during a visit to London, reveals that the Establishment had taken the dominions on board their malicious intents; Baldwin and Lang knew very well that dominions will have to play their part when the time came.

The abdication of Edward VIII: An Islamic take on the crisis that shook the Crown

Phillips, The King Who Had to Go While the modernistic appeal of Edward, Prince of Wales struck a chord with the young and the populace in general, it was seen by the royal family as a danger to the future of the royal family, especially at a time when monarchies were falling left, right and centre. There were ministers, including the likes of Winston Churchill, who had a soft corner and sympathy for the king.
