They live in the deepest recesses of their wild valleys, and commit their depredations on the ungarded 83 travellers with an impunity quite characteristic of the state of the country. The presence of temporary spots of pigment noticed among new-born Japanese by Grimm and Baelz, among the Chinese by Matignon, among the Tagals of the Philippines by Collignon, and among the Eskimo by Sören-Hansen, is more puzzling.

The Letters to the Seven Churches of Asia

He received us most graciously, and after we had pulled off our boots and shoes, and Sir Harford and the Khan had gone through some little polite difficulties about their seats, we finally settled ourselves on chairs prepared for us.

Henry Charles

With more than twenty preachers operating in different parts of the country, with no discipline adopted by themselves for their own government, it is easy to see why a general meeting was called in 1820.
