Grandfather's pencil and the room of stories (Book, 1994) [localize-ing.justmote.me]

I remember walking around on my first day in Guadalajara, watching the people going to work, rolling up tortillas in the marketplace, smoking, laughing.

Ruskin Bond

Squire Jenkins and the Parson say they wouldn't come near your house again — no matter how sick they are. Her default position toward me, as an African, was a kind of patronizing, well-meaning pity. He is orphaned and has no real family.
