The Art of War in the Western World. Hornblower, Simon; Spawforth, Antony, eds. In politics his chief achievement was the final overthrow of Sparta's predominance in the Peloponnese; as a constructive statesman he displayed no special talent, and the lofty pan-Hellenic ambitions which are imputed to him at any rate never found a practical expression.

“Epaminondas”

The Thebans around him fought desperately to stop the Spartans taking possession of his body. When these exiles recovered the cities, they 'no longer took a middle course'.
