Cahiers d'Études Africaines on JSTOR

SCImago Journal Rank is an indicator, which measures the scientific influence of journals. It also intends to publicize and establish links between all the literary productions — whether oral or written — coming from the African continent in its broadest sense, including Arabic-speaking, Portuguese-speaking, French-speaking and English-speaking African countries, along with literatures in African languages and those of the black diaspora worldwide. For more information, we invite institutions to fill out our.

Etudes sociales nord

Before its creation, all African studies associations have been largely located outside the continent. A writing style guide is available at Policy on plagiarism. By grasping the reform processes from a triple perspective agenda setting, mobilizations, implementation, the contributions to this issue attempt to analyze the degree of influence of international standards, the specificities of women legal mobilizations in these predominantly Muslim countries, but also the role that law may—or may not—play in the reconfiguration of gender relations.
