A Biblical Theology of Suffering

Job: His Problem Persistent suffering affects our mind and body. Finally, there are questions about the implications of an idea. His lifestyle had changed as well: a line of mistresses, then a secret second family, total cutoffs from most old friends.

John the Baptist

Those is why John wrote the epistle of 1 John to argue that Jesus came in the flesh, and that when the body sins, we sin. From His word, we need to see Him and His infinite perfections, so that when the difficult day comes—and it will—we might follow in the steps of that great trailblazer of the faith: Job.

The Suffering Servant

When Jesus appeared again later, he invited Thomas to probe his wounds. There was several things that drove it.

May

Job returns the insults, calling them sorry comforters 16:2.

What Does the Bible Say About Suffering?

Presence as incarnation is fundamental to all witness. On the contrary, he kept sin far away.

The Bible and the Problem of Evil

In this sense he too joined in the popular speculations about the identity of Christ.

What Does the Bible Say About Suffering?

Doris Lessing, Nobel Prize winning South African novelist, in The Sirian Experiments, constructs a cosmic history of the earth told from an extra-planetary perspective. They come with their clichés and tired, pious mouthings. Jesus walked the path of a servant 10:45 and if his disciples wanted to follow him, they had to learn to walk that path too.

The Suffering Servant

The individual, or the obtaining of an inheritance?. In weak moments, he questions the providence of God.
