The First Days of Class: A Practical Guide for the Beginning Teacher by Rebecca Lynn Wilke, Paperback

This, I hope, provides students with some motivation to learn about those tools later in the semester. I am generally a strict but fair teacher and I do not tolerate much. The retiring teacher did not leave anything for me.

The First Year Teaching: Classroom rules and routines

Not Just for Beginners by Linda Shalaway, © 2005, published by Scholastic, Inc. This will help you address the specific problems you have in class, gain new teaching strategies, and ultimately grow as a teacher so that you feel both effective and satisfied in your work. Most people tend to use a stereotypical simple formula to introduce themselves in a speech, which only includes their name and profession.

New Teacher Checklist: Your Plan for the First Day of School

Ideally, learn these procedures from the teacher personally. Write something on the board, then walk to the back of the room or sit in a seat.

The Ultimate Guide to Starting a Teaching Job Mid

More books are added later. This is not my field. Hi Alyssa, welcome to Pre-K! The Next Class and Beyond Or, you can do all of that in person on the second day of class.
