Schwenckfeld's Commentary on the Augsburg Confession: A by Fred A. Grater

To this General Council, and at the same time to Your Imperial Majesty, we have made appeal in this greatest and gravest of matters even before this, in due manner and form of law. Charles V never would achieve his dream of a Europe united under the Roman Catholic Church; the Magdeburg Confession had exposed his political tactics as tyrannical and his theological posture as diabolical, and the people of Magdeburg had demonstrated both their right and their resolve to resist such tyranny under the protection of their local magistrates. Article 28 - Of Ecclesiastical Power There has been great controversy concerning the Power of Bishops, in which some have awkwardly confounded the power of the Church and the power of the sword.

For these reasons the priests teach that it is lawful for them to marry wives.

The Augsburg Confession: A Commentary

When, therefore, the question is concerning the jurisdiction of bishops, civil authority must be distinguished from ecclesiastical jurisdiction. This, they said, was the proper way to remember the saints.

It is necessary that the chief article of the Gospel be preserved, to wit, that we obtain grace freely by faith in Christ, and not for certain observances or acts of worship devised by men.

Augsburg Confession

But it is evident that any custom introduced against the commandments of God is not to be allowed, as the Canons witness Dist. The Lutheran Confessions Series introduces the central beliefs expressed in the major Lutheran writings in a highly readable style, and shows how they provide additional insight into Scripture.

Article 10 - Of the Lord's Supper Of the Supper of the Lord they teach that the Body and Blood of Christ are truly present, and are distributed to those who eat the Supper of the Lord; and they reject those that teach otherwise. They therefore condemn those who teach that the Sacraments justify by the outward act, and who do not teach that, in the use of the Sacraments, faith which believes that sins are forgiven, is required. Such liberty in human rites was not unknown to the Fathers.
