25 Awesome Things Scotland Gave the World

First it thought my finger was a peanut so it tried to take that, but realized it was not.

Comment: The item is fairly worn but continues to function properly. Using a computer-controlled soldering iron to fuse grains of sugar into candy sculptures may seem a bit tangential to the serious business of academia, but it's really too soon to judge. Then we check the consistency of the browning for each slot, and we time it to see how long it takes to get that perfect slice.

I beg your tolerance for my latest field note entry: this morning, I observed a squirrel and a bird, which I believe to be a Brown Thrasher, playing tag — or something. I have been feeding my tree squirrels for two or three years and am madly in love with them all.

Toilet (room)

He only went outside maybe 5 or 6 times, for just minutes each time. After several months of daily feeding, they are filled in and nicely plump. As part of an exercise in poetry 412 class with Dr.
