André Derain: Criterium of the Aces

The simplified description of both landscape elements and the figures themselves, gives them an abstract appearance that emphasizes the overall decorative nature of the work. There is no traditional modulation of light and shadow; instead he uses heavy outlines to suggest volumetric passages. In 1900, he met and shared a studio with and together they began to paint scenes in the neighbourhood, but this was interrupted by military service at Commercy from September 1901 to 1904.

Although the interest in the L'Estaque coastline of Southern France was shared by many, Derain's version diverges. The title of the article is a reference to a famous French bicycle race, the Race of the Aces , which was held from 1921 to 1990. Every thing becomes meaningful through its perceived relationship to other things and to other realms of experiences.
