For many years, the most detailed English language sources on developments in Burma have been the Thailand-based dailies Bangkok Post and Nation and the Hong Kong-based weeklies Asiaweek and Far Eastern Economic Review.

KINGDOM OF THAILAND: THAI HISTORY AND TIME.

Unlike 198 years before, they are not contented with making Siam a vassal state; much rather it is the Burmese King Mongra's objective to destroy completely the Siamese capital. Despite U Ba Pe's desires to expel all Indian advisors, he was talked down by U So Thein and U Maung Gyee, and Indian influence over the republic was instead progressively removed as native Burmese politicians, economists and organizers took on greater roles in government.
