heard a lot of comic shop clerks got a big kick out of it. FRIEDMAN: I used to work larger, and it would get shrunk down and I would have all sons of problems; the stuff would wind up looking muddy, too dark, too light.

I might even want to go back to a comics publisher for the next book, because comic book stores had a hard time getting Warts and All.
