It does take you to the english countryside and to winter days full of snow which I can only imagine for it doesn't snow where I live. I must say that the story was quite intriguing but also from time to time a little confusing because it jumped from one person to the other. The baker had also brought the papers, and she spread them out on the hall table.

This man rings the bell, asks for her, and is told by the landlady to go up to the second floor. As with many of the Hope novels, the ending seemed to come a bit easily, but I didn't mind just because I enjoy the overall stories and the characters a lot. First Agatha Christie story, and I did really enjoy it! And no, as usual, I didn't get the whodunit until the end when it was revealed.

“Three Blind Mice”

She froze in her place, realizing that she could not hurt the mice.

Three Blind Mice Book

However, Chris Wren's Pre-Fab Nests may achieve fame. Many of us have heard the story of the three blind mice. They are short, but so good.
