These streets might, indeed, date from the period when Sicyon was the chief town of the Roman province of Achaia, the period that is between the overthrow of Corinth in 146 B. Manchester contains, at its heart, a rather extended commercial district, perhaps half a mile long and about as broad, and consisting almost wholly of offices and warehouses. He was active and vigilant in thwarting the efforts of commissioners from the seceding States and those citizens of Maryland in sympathy with them, and was prominent among those who sustained Governor Hicks in resisting the pressure brought to bear upon him to convene the Legislature in extra session for purposes well understood to be in harmony with the general secession movement.
