What Does The Bible Say About Confidence? A Christian Study

When it comes to our own thinking, we can be relying on our self too much. From Acts 9:15-16 What work had God given Saul to do? He called you blameless before the foundation of the world.

4 Keys to Building Confidence in God When Life Falls Apart

When life is tough, things are different. I was living in New York City at the time, testing the waters of show business and working three unsatisfying jobs to barely pay the rent.

Daily Devotion

By this we may know that we are in him. Those who believed in Jesus will be rewarded for the lives they lived on this earth as Christians.

How to Put Your Confidence in God Instead of Yourself

One action of faith leads to another act of faith. So stop arguing with Him and start agreeing with Him! It means that you are not just wishing or hoping God is going to act in your behalf, but that you expect or that you are certain that he is at work in your circumstances.
