Early Yorkshire Charters

At about the same time he attested with three of his personal knights a confirmation with Alan de Percy to the monks of Whitby.

Early Yorkshire Charters: Volume 12, The Tison Fee

This is a new charter and not a reconfirmation. He subsequently studied at Cambridge and was ordained a deacon in 1794 and a priest in 1800.

Early Yorkshire Charters: Volume 1 : William Farrer : 9781108058230

Bayeux, canton of Isigny, witnessed charters of this Robert de Brus circa 1135 in Yorkshire. This volume contains the information collected by Francis Gastrell Bishop of Chester 1714-25 about the Yorkshire parishes within his diocese — the Archdeaconry of Richmond had been part of the diocese of York until 1540. It is useful to consider the present group of charters and the cartulary to which they relate in the larger context of diplomatic criticism and record-keeping in medieval England.

Medieval Manuscripts

Early Yorkshire charters; being a collection of documents anterior to the thirteenth century made from the public records, monastic chartularies, Roger Dodsworth's manuscripts and other available sources : Farrer, William, 1861

The series was well respected for the quality of Farrer's editing, which was surpassed only by that of Clay in the later volumes. The first three volumes were edited by William Farrer 1861—1924 , after whose death Charles Travis Clay 1885—1978 took up the task.
