Molly Fumia, Safe Passage Needed: A strong, deep person wise enough to allow me to grieve in the depth of who I am, and strong enough to hear my pain without turning away. The book is geared more toward those who lose a loved one suddenly through something like a car accident or heart attack, not someone who loses a loved one through an illness. For those who face the challenges of sudden death, the classic guide I Wasn't Ready to Say Goodbye offers a comforting hand to hold, written by two authors who have experienced it firsthand.
