The former seems to be Field ing's, and the latter is possibly his. On August 13th he published, 2 anonymously, the following pamphlet, advertising it thus: Yesterday was Published Beautifully printed on a Sheet and a Half of Writing Paper. One can picture him, aroused in the dead of night, coming down to examine some thief brought in by the firm hand of Saunders Welch.

The 1960s

On March 31st of this year some friend of Fielding's, probably Dr. INTRODUCTION 115 republic; 1 his two papers on the 'mob'; 2 and two on the ' Social Evil' 3 wherein he takes up this method in a more serious vein.

The Bedford Estate: From 1641 to 1700

Whereas the Author of a TASTELESS, aequivocal mungrel, hermaphroditical kind of Play, between a Farce and a Comedy, has thought fit to sneer the NOSELESS AMELIA by his NOSELESS HEAD from Herculaneum of the Venus of Paphos. The Consequence of which hath been the Dissolution of that antient Friendship and Amity which subsisted between the Author and the Critic, so much to the mutual Advantage of both People, and that the latter hath long declared War against the former. But this exchange also reveals a great deal about how the London public responded to the actions of agents of the legal system during the autumn of 1809.
