Where design services are outsourced to foreign parties, and the construction site is in Hong Kong, the legislation would still apply to those foreign parties. However, when debt is used to finance month-to-month expenses, it has a corrosive impact on overall financial health.

Final Report

In Ontario, at present, the case law indicates that a properly drafted pay-when-paid clause will be enforced. A bid would be instantly placed on hold for that individual.

Evaluation reports

This is important, because it mitigates an advantage a dominant incumbent would otherwise have from its control of a large fleet of resources. These provisions do apply to the design of generation circuits and equipment, but there are no others.

Reports — Australian Competition Law

As discussed in the next chapter, the committee recommends forming a special stakeholder committee that will develop guidelines to prevent market power abuses. The Procurement Guidance Note explains that there are three key decisions that have to be made with respect to the operation of the PBA: 5.
