Essays in Honor of Lionel Stevenson, edited by Clyde de L. I hear their well-known voices, see their eyes Shining once more in mine, and straight forget That I have wept their loss in many tears, Mix'd with reproaches—bitter, sad regrets, Self-chidings, and the memory of wrongs, Endured, inflicted, suffer'd, and avenged! The fame to which Byron awoke in London in 1812 was spread rapidly throughout Europe and the English-speaking world by scores of translations and editions. You are very rash, sir! Maize in milk Major Singleton : příběh z války za nezávislost Marie de Berniere Maroon Martin Faber ; the story of a criminal.

The earth denies Her bosom for repose—the shade is gone That offer'd grateful shelter to the eye; And the dear aspects, which had each its birth Twinn'd with some proud affection,—they depart, In mournful robes of shadow that disguise Each lineament of love. Since Harrow, Byron had had mixed feelings about Napoleon.

William Gilmore Simms, 1806

In his maiden speech on February 27 he defended stocking weavers in his home area of Nottinghamshire who had broken the improved weaving machinery, or frames, that deprived them of work and reduced them to near starvation; he opposed as cruel and unjust a government-sponsored bill that made frame breaking a capital offense.

William Gilmore Simms

The woman tells the narrator she would appreciate her bringing over any bad meat she has. The language has in all periods been a literary medium; conversely, literature has enriched the language with neologisms, allusions, and quotations. One day a man in terrible condition comes to see him.

Who strives with fate, Must still, like him, the mighty Macedonian, Seize the coy priestess by the wrist, and lead her Where yet she would not go!
ENGLISH LITERATURE Biblical and Hebraic Influences The Bible has generally been found to be congenial to the English spirit. On each rugged brow Capricious fires ascend, recede, advance, Down sinking, then up rushing, as the flow Of waves that seek the beach when seas are low, Fond of old places! Works inspired by the Bible were especially prominent in the 17th century, first during the era of Puritanism, and later when the undogmatic, practical temper of Anglican piety led to a new evaluation both of the Jews and of the Hebrew scriptures.
