It contains some scenes of Nebet in the harem, or women's quarters, in the palace, which is rare to be seen. Born Roland Loomis, at age four he claimed to have experienced dreams of which, along with his anthropological studies, influenced his interests in body modification. As vizier, Kagemni also held the positions of overseer of the scribes of the king's documents, overseer of all the works of the king, and overseer of the six great courts.
