Perched on a Tree (1971)

Above all in the second half of that year, when I painted the canvasses which would appear in the Salon des Ind  pendants of 1911. . You have almost everything here: the influence of cheap entertainment the TV movie preview , the influence of news media both the fact that the ones to be saved are finding out from TV what is going on and the crowd drawn up by the publicity , the unfaithful young wife looking for temporary relief, the socialist young man looking for adventure, the big corporation doing something else than declared, the big corporation ready to do anything to reach its estimated profits, the church, the honorable wife, the 20th century entertainment, etc.
