Drawing Examples from Two or More Caricom Institutions, Discuss the View That 'Political Disagreements Among Member Countries Overshadow Caricom's Contribution to Caribbean Development'

The Secretariat itself was divided into two Divisions. PANCAP, established on 14 February 2001, has provided the umbrella under which many opportunities have been garnered for the provision of regional goods and services; and has bridged the resource constraints gaps in its collective response to the HIV and AIDS epidemic in the Caribbean.

Caribbean Free Trade Association

William Demas, became the first Secretary-General of the CARICOM. The President of the Republic of Suriname Ronald Venetiaan, received the first of these new CARICOM passports. This is partially done in collaboration with the Caribbean Regional Negotiating Machinery CRNM.

Caribbean Free Trade Association

Trinidad and Tobago required that production facilities be inspected first. This participation was quite active with The Bahamas' Premier, Lynden Pindling, sharing experiences and offering suggestions with regards to the establishment and operation of a regional air carrier at the 1969 Conference, and with The Bahamas along with Belize which was not as yet a member of the Association being invited to participate in the initial meeting and in all future discussions of the regional Ministers of Education in regards to the establishment of the and the overall regional plan for cooperation in education at the 1970 Heads of Government Conference.
