Romans

Rather than looking at the good things in our lives as blessings from God, we have made them our purpose, our objective. Man has lost his scepter because he rebelled against God's scepter. Or judgment, or sin, or holiness, for that matter.

Introduction to Romans

We will reign and rule with Christ to the extent to which we suffered for him.

Romans Introduction

However, in another sense, as Christians we experience eternal life to the extent that we do good deeds cf. Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Pardon, liberation, atonement—all are made available to men and women by his free initiative and may be appropriated by faith.

An Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans

Together these two words show humankind's failure to love God and other people as we should, which are our two greatest responsibilities Deut.

An Exposition of the Epistle to the Romans

He explained three principles by which God will judge everyone 2:1-16. Faith is not antithetical to reason. What is true historically and theologically is in measure true, however, experientially.

Robert junior illustre

Whereas Abraham lived before the Mosaic Law, David lived under it. Paul, the author, was a Hebrew by descent, a native of Tarsus in Cilicia, and educated by Gamaliel, the great Pharisaic teacher. Bringing the highest level of technical expertise to bear on the canon, cognate literature, and the historical matrix of the Bible, JBL has stood at the center of communication among biblical scholars in North America for the past 125 years.

Romans

They were saying that, if the Jews behaved this way, what a bad God they must have.

Romans

By so doing, he warned the self-righteous. The lie in view is the contention that we should venerate someone or something in place of the true God cf.
