Migration of Saharan peoples south of the Sahelian region resulted in seasonal interaction with and gradual absorption of West African hunter-gatherers, who primarily dwelt in the and of West Africa.

Travels in West Africa (1897 edition)

She feels impelled as Bird often did to relate facts and figures regarding commerce and trade or geographical facts--boring. Mary Henrietta Kingsley 13 October 1862 — 3 June 1900 was an British explorer and writer who greatly influenced European ideas about Africa and its people. One day I went down to the river to satisfy a need, and lo, one of the blacks came and stood between me and the river.
