As you love may I love, in receiving and in giving, Spirit, open my heart. For this hymn to have come from someone who is bed-ridden makes it all the more special.

Hymns of Parting

Johann Hans Georg Nageli was born in Zurich Switzerland, and was trained in his early years by his father. But, as Paul shows, he should be a father in his loving relationship, in his care for the saints, and in his wise and faithful provision for spiritual needs.

I my Ebenezer raise

But, his greatest legacy would be a single hymn that was inspired by the love of pastor and people in that tender scene when he almost departed. Calvin Institute of Christian Worship, n.
